

I am in support of the inoppperability problem facing individuals that use VRS services. I feel that their should be access to use any server and to keep the same telephone number even if you change carriers. There should be equal rights and equal access to all users. Thank you.